Disclaimer:

The virtual consult/video conference and communications do not create a physician-patient relationship, and information provided during a virtual consult/video conference and communications are not intended to constitute medical advice. The virtual consult/video conference and communications are for information purposes only and do not replace an actual in-person, face-to-face consultation with the doctor. Virtual consult/video conference and communications are provided as an alternative for the convenience of individuals seeking to speak with Dr. Zimm and for the purpose of exchanging preliminary information. A thorough in-person consultation is required prior to any surgery or procedure. Dr. Zimm reserves the right to amend any information, assessment, or recommendation given during a virtual consult/video conference and communications. Dr. Zimm may also decline to perform any surgery or procedure in his sole professional judgment following an in-person consultation. Any information provided during a virtual consult/video conference and communications further shall not be deemed to be a promise, guarantee, or agreement to provide services.

The individual understands that any health information they communicate or transmit during the virtual consult/video conference and communications and over the internet may not be secure, and may be available to or intercepted by third parties. Accordingly, you should inform Dr. Zimm whether or not there is information you do not wish to communicate via virtual consult/video conference without disclosing the nature of the information so as to maintain its confidentiality. By participating in a virtual consult/video conference and communications, you understand and agree that your information may not be confidential and Dr. Zimm shall not be held liable for any unauthorized access, use or disclosure of your personal health information.
